Chicago Gram and Produce. CHICAGO, Nov. 21,-Trading in whea was active and the market, while weal early, developed decidedly more strength later. Shorts evidently were too sanguine The opening was a repetition of the pa lew days, and with heavy offerings 1/10/16 decline was established at the start, bu somebody was absorbing the offerings and when some of the heaviest shorts undertook to cover there was not much whea for sale. Suddenly the sentiment changed and the result was a rapid rise in prices Yesterday it was rumored that some large traders had been selling freely of long wheat and a denial of these rumors possi-bly had a strengthening effect on the market. Buying today was credited not alone to shorts but also to a local trader who has figured conspicuously on the long side The opening was 14034c lower than yesterday's closing, rallied immediately %c then fluctuated with small range, selling cack %c, but later rallied 23/c, sold off slightly and closed about 11/c higher than yesterday. Corn was moderately active at times, though most of the session a quiet feeling prevailed. Trading was to a considerable extent local, not much outside business being transacted and fluctuations imited to Scrange with the exception of limited to he range with the exception of November. Opening sales were at about Union depot, tak street, and Walash avonce depot. yesterday's closing prices, firm for a time, then sold off Make, ruled irregular and closed a shade better than yesterday.

CURIOUS THINGS OF LIFE.

At New Bloomfield, Pa., one of Zach Rice's porses got his foot stuck in his mouth. It is related of a Lincoln. Neb., man that ne journeyed to California in order to see an

"Price $20" was the legend that a Mt. Clemens, Mich., lady wore on her clock as she went through the town the other day. Over the principal entrance to a Nevade shanty haugs a shingle with this legend: "come in An git a squar mele sich as Your mother Used to Kuk for a Quarter." Matthew Thompson who was lately sent to the Sauk County, Wis., Insane asylum had a mania for having his teeth pulled, and tried to induce dentists to extract all his teeth. At a Buffalo "half off" sale it was proven that cashmere worth 69 cents per yard was sold for 93 cents by placing it on the "bargain" counter. Things are not always what they seem.

The telephone was put to a novel use in Toronto. A citizen who had been summoned to appear at the police court for breach of a bylaw, finding that he would be unable to ap-pear in person, telephoned the fact to head-quarters, admitting his guilt, and was fined $1 and costs through the same medium, A little negro boy, 13 years old, has been preaching before crowds in Perry county, Georgia, and astonishing every one with his eloquence and his familiarity with the Script-ures. Frequently an audience of 1,500 people has listened to his discourses and wondered at the maturity of thought shown in his sermons. A woman with a patent button fastener has been doing the towns in eastern Wash ington. Walking quickly up to a staid old gent on the street she will dexterously clip a button from his coat, and when he exposts lates she produces her button fastener and instantly replaces the button, tight and solid.

Of course he buys a box. The people of Hillsborough, N. H., who passed Mr. Eaton's house on Henniker street, used to wonder what caused the concrete pavement to swell up in a certain spot, where an elevation like a cone had formed. Finally they opened the cone and found that a modest toad stool had pushed up the thick and heavy concrete while growing.

A large tree that stood in front of the house of Mrs. William Wood in Jersey City fell, breaking every pane of glass in the front part of the building. The tree fell in such a Mrs. Wood, who was out at the time of the accident, could not get in, and the servants in the house could not get out.

A men who has made his fortune and retired ought not to give the trade away, but some men do it. A retired St. Louis jewelet says that there is as much profit in the repairing department of watchmaking as there is in plumbing. A mainspring, for instance, for replacing which few jewciers charge less than $1.50, costs on an average about 8 cents, and it takes only about half an hour to set it
